

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 6.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

PER MONTH.....$3.00

PER YEAR.....$36.00

Vol. 84.....No. 11,648

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class matter.

BRANCH OFFICES:

WORLD OFFICE: 1207 BROADWAY,

between 11th and 12th sts., New York.

WORLD MAILING OFFICE: 125TH ST. AND

MADISON AVE.

BROOKLYN: 309 WASHINGTON ST.

PHILADELPHIA: PA. LEADER BUILDING, 113

NORTH 5TH ST. WASH. D.C.: 101 14TH ST.

375,000 Per Day.

Returns, Exchange List and All

Free Papers Deducted.

A TESTIMONIAL.

"The undersigned advertisers in New York City, having been invited to enamine all books and accounts relating to the circulation of THE WORLD,

"certify that they have ascertained

"of the circulation, and that they have

"traced the circulation in various parts

"from the contracts for the supply of

"paper to the bank deposits for the sales

"of the paper. They have verified the "published statements of circulation, and

"are satisfied of their accuracy, and

"that the net actual, bona fide, paid cir"culation of THE WORLD, Morning

"and Evening Editions, per day for the

"six days of the week ended March 18th,

"1934, after deducting all return papers,

"free papers and exchanges, was 375,000.

"BLOOMINGDALE BROS.,

"by E. W. Bloomingdale.

"R. H. MACY & CO.,

"by A. L. Kincaid.

"JOHN DANIEL & SONS,

"per H. C. Allaire, Accountant.

"ADAMS & CO.,

"per John A. Lamboy, Advertising Manager.

"ERICSSON & CO.,

"per G. R. Leghorn, Supt.

"EDWARD RIDLEY & SONS,

"per W. A. Edmunds, Accountant.

"LUDWIG BROS.,

"ALFRED J. CAMMEYER."

THE EVENING WORLD'S

Net paid bona fide actual daily

Average Circulation

is greater than the combined circulation of the

Evening Sun,

Mail and Express,

Evening Post,

Commercial Advertiser,

Evening Telegram.

This is the season when there is a breathing spell in politics.

All England attends the royal wedding to-day—in mind, if not in body.

Mr. Cleveland has vastly more fun fishing than the office-seekers have in angling.

Those Paris mobs are cultivating

frightful cases of insomnia in the French capital.

The Broadway cable won't go to let the trolley systems of the country

make all the records.

The schoolship St. Mary's should not be allowed to founder on the rocks of a penny-wise municipal policy.

The sort of Seville were that those dramatists furnish will never become popular, either in or out of the Spanish city.

New York will lose more than money on the sort of economy that lets the

St. Mary's nautical school go by for lack of a paltry $40,000.

If obstructions continue to spring up along the Battery Park sea wall some speculator may yet acquire wealth by running a captive balloon, so as to give the people a chance at the bay view.

203-1-2 at Kirkwood, Del. To be sure, that is only half a second faster than Nanny Hank's record, but the trotting record has got down to a point where half-second counts tremendously. Nearer and nearer we are getting to the "two-minute horse." No longer is it a question of the day whether that wonderful speed will ever come. The query is now, "When will he come?"

A POLITICAL POINT.

In view of the prospect of a repeal of the Federal Silver Purchase act, and of the great interest felt in the question of what legislation may follow such repeal, it may be worth while to call attention to the financial plank of the Democratic National platform.

It is as follows:

VII.—We denounce the Republican legislation known as the Silver act of 1900 as a cowardly makeshift, fraught with possibilities of danger to the future which should make all of its supporters, as well as its author, anxious for its repeal. We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, and to the coinage of both gold and silver, without discriminating against either metal or character of minting. We demand that equal value be given to both metals, and that the exchangeable value, or of equal intrinsic value, be maintained by the Federal Government, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall ensure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals, and the equal value of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts, and we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with and exchangeable in such coin. We insist that the policy be especially necessary for the protection of the farmers and laboring classes, the first and most defenseless victims of unstable money and a fluctuating currency.

NEW YORK IS NOT WICKED.

New York can no longer claim the distinction of being one of the wickedest cities in the world. Judge Cowling's remarkable charge to the Grand Jury yesterday in Part I. of the General Sessions shows that if we ever aspired to that title our claim must now be withdrawn.

The judge stated that not for years has there been so little business before a new Grand Jury and the Court. There are only sixty-eight prisoners in jail, he said, and there is no crying evil to be investigated. The Court congratulated the jurors on the fact that they would be able to hold short sessions during the hot weather. He said that the city would be considered, while accused persons who are out on bail would have to wait. In two weeks there would probably be cleared off, and then the jury would only have to deal with crimes as they occur.

In fact, Judge Cowling was able to promise the Grand Jury a pleasant time, with very little to do, certainly an agreeable outlook for August.

PARIS IS A TURMOIL.

The situation in Paris grows more and more serious. There was some sharp fighting between the police and the mob last night, and several streets are barricaded. It is now evident that the Communists and political agitators have assumed control of what at its inception was a students' row, and that one of the objects of the riotous demonstrations is to affect the approaching elections.

In the excitement growing out of the Panama scandal the Government was considered in danger. But the killing of one citizen and the fight with the police is a more active incentive to an uprising of the dangerous elements in the excitable city than a dozen such exposures. There is no serious danger of any Communist revolution, however, as the people are with the Government, notwithstanding its present weakness and incapacity.

The bitter feeling between the police and the rabble is to be deplored, and may bear fruit in the elections. Indeed, the end of the present disturbances is not yet reached, and there may be much greater loss of life before peace is restored.

TO-DAY'S ROYAL MARRIAGE.

The Londoners will have a grand time to-day. The Queen has thrown aside her mourning and is entering heartily into the festivities and rejoicings over the wedding of her grandson, the Duke of York, and Princess Alice, this city, on his way to Chicago and San Francisco with his family. He goes to Siberia by way of Japan.

Supt. Byrnes has received an intimation that the General will never reach his destination, as the Nihilists intend to "give him a hard time." The Americans do not like Siberia or anything belonging to it. They have all the greater prejudice against the Russian since our Government has agreed by treaty to supply Russia with arms for its horrors. But the new governor is safe while here. We have a reliable police and the Nihilists, however well disposed to cut short the Governor's official career, will scarcely attempt any murders in New York just now. It would be a bad time for such experiments.

THE GENERAL IS SAFE.

Gen. Donkhovskiy, who has just received the appointment of Governor of Siberia from the Emperor of Russia, is at the Hotel de Ville in Paris, on his way to Chicago and San Francisco with his family. He goes to Siberia by way of Japan.

Supt. Byrnes has received an intimation that the General will never reach his destination, as the Nihilists intend to "give him a hard time." The Americans do not like Siberia or anything belonging to it. They have all the greater prejudice against the Russian since our Government has agreed by treaty to supply Russia with arms for its horrors. But the new governor is safe while here. We have a reliable police and the Nihilists, however well disposed to cut short the Governor's official career, will scarcely attempt any murders in New York just now. It would be a bad time for such experiments.

ST. MARY'S TO A TROUBLE.

The Manhattan Railroad Company millionaires have not yet abandoned all hope of beating the city out of a further portion of the inadequate compensation finally agreed upon by the Rapid Transit Commission as the price of the valuable new franchises and privileges offered by the city to the company.

It is given out that, because of the Geary law annual Chinese Sunday-school excursions from New York and vicinity have been forbidden by the Commissioner of Education. This is a small measure of good to come indirectly out of an arbitrary and treaty-breaking decree.

The trotting world has a new luminary all at once. Ayres P., a seven-year-old gelding, has trotted a great mile in that the Manhattan Company is conferring a favor on the people of the city by consenting to extend and improve its lines, and ought not to be required to pay a single dollar to the city for the new privileges.

Of course, the request for more time is only made in the hope that the corporation may be enabled to "skin" the city out of a little more money. It is a false pretense. The road cannot be allowed to believe that the decision of the Rapid Transit Commission cannot be again changed or reopened. If they saw any danger of that, they would conclude the arrangement in hot haste. They know the value of the new franchises placed within their reach and would not pay a great deal more than has ever been asked by the Commission rather than lose them.

It would be fortunate for the city and fortunate for rapid transit if Commissioner Starr would declare the pending proposition "off" and again insist on terms just and fair to the city or the construction of new and competing elevated roads.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Previously acknowledged.....$1,492.40
Master Heverly Graham.....14.71
Richard W. Hummel.....5.00
Masters Friedman, Goldberg and Wolf.....2.00
Mrs. Thomas Walton.....2.00
Julia Clements.....1.30
M. W.....1.00
Geo. J. Kane, 29 W. 43rd-st. street.....1.00
Lonely Mother, New Rochelle.....1.00

THE BIRD OF FIRE.

This dazzling jewel is on exhibition at the West End Long Branch but a few days more will be seen at the Broadway Theatre any day during business hours. The final disposition of the bird is as soon as the 2000 chances are sold. It will be a chance of a life-time, exactly like a sea swallow at high noon, winging its way over the blue sea.

Colorado has much to live for yet. Her silver prospects are looking up again, and the biggest strike of gold ever made in the State is reported. The clouds which lately gathered over the far-off commonwealth appear to have had a bimetallic lining.

COMMODORE LOCKWOOD DEAD.

He Was One of the Oldest Naval Officers in the Country.

The death of Commodore Samuel Lockwood, of the United States navy, at his home in Flushing, L. I., is announced to-day.

Commodore Lockwood was born in Connecticut in 1833, and was one of the oldest naval officers in the country. He entered the navy as a midshipman at the age of seventeen, and from that time on he followed the sea.

He served during his early career on the frigate Congress, Constellation, Hornet and Constitution, being on the last named warship in 1853, when he was made lieutenant. He was promoted to commander in 1859, when he took command of the sloop Cyane, on the Pacific station.

During the civil war he commanded the steamer Daylight, and was engaged in the capture of the rebel sloop, the Monitor, at Beaufort, N. C., York River and Newport News, and had some lively encounters with Confederate blockade runners.

He also assisted in the capture of the rebel sloop, the Monitor, at Beaufort, N. C., York River and Newport News, and had some lively encounters with Confederate blockade runners.

SURROGATE RANSOM'S SUCCESSOR.

William J. Lardner Said to Be Slated by Tammany.

Tammany politicians are talking of Deputy Attorney-General William J. Lardner as the nominee for the place of Surrogate Rasmus Ransom, whose term expires in December.

This completes the Summer slate for the high judicial nominations to be made this Fall. Judge Miles Beach, of the Court of Common Pleas, who is a friend of Senator Edward Murphy, Jr., is said to be sure of re-nomination.

Justice James M. Fitzsimons, of the City Court, is also not down as his successor, and, according to all authorities, Civil Justice Fallon will get Justice Henry T. McGowan's seat on the City Court bench.

The minor judicial nominations to be made are for the Court of Sessions, the Court of the Police Justices, the term of Justice Ryan expires in November, and his successor will be appointed by Mayor Gilroy.

ROBBED A MAIL-BOX.

Winters Got a Dozen Spoons and Glasses He Thought Them.

Henry Winters, of 41 Chrystie street, was taken into custody in the Tombs Court to-day, charged with stealing a package containing a dozen silver spoons from the top of a letter-box at West Broadway and Franklin street last night.

The Mamma Club, of the Leonard street squad, saw Winters take the package, and caught him after a chase down the street. Winters added that to a Schenk, Newark N. J. Winters said he bought them from a man in City Hall Park. The police are in search of the owner.

Tried to Be a Realist.

"Oh, dear!" said a lady who had her mother-in-law's portrait on her in a shop, "I don't suppose I shall ever get this graduation essay done."

"What is the matter?" asked her mother.

"The lady said that if I should not do it, I should be a failure."

"SAVE THE BABIES!"

There Are Many Ways to Help Save a Little Life.

Some Entertainments in Aid of the Charity.

The Diamond Bird That Will Fly for $1.

Julia's Birthday Party.

Touched by the Doctors' Stories.

A Lonely Mother's Prayer.

Socialists Adjourn.

A Press Bureau to Be Established for Campaign Purposes.

CHICAGO, July 6.—At the afternoon session of the Socialists yesterday, Chairman Sanderson presented the report of the Press Committee, which provided for the establishment of a central bureau for plate matter to be used for campaign and agitation purposes. It was decided to continue the Socialists' campaign for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the party. Boston was continued as the location of the Board of Grievances.

Three votes were taken to decide the location of headquarters for the next three years without result, the balloting being ended by a proposition to submit the question for election to a general vote of the